‘The Unlikely Events in the Life of...’

In this unique genre mix of show, musical and sitcom, nine comedians take their audience on an unforgettable trip through the imaginary world of their celebrity host. Each episode focuses on the life of a different VIP host and is recorded in front of a live studio audience – guaranteeing a light and comical atmosphere. Featuring a mix of pre-produced clips, live skits and musical numbers, the host of the week finds themselves in the middle of several ‘unlikely events’. Going to extremes and not taking themselves very seriously, the celebrity watches – and participates – as the recurring ensemble of nine young comedians spoof their life, their reputation and their career. A wildly funny sketch comedy that goes above and beyond – all for the audience’s entertainment.

- Target group: Adults aged 14-49
- Format created and produced by btf for WDR
